Re-Charge your Batteries!

As winter makes its presence felt, we all feel a bit like hibernating. But spare a thought for your car's battery.

Cold mornings are hard on them, too, making starting difficult – especially if you park outside.

Older batteries are less likely to start, so if yours is more than three years old it ought to be tested. Place it on our electronic battery tester and it will read either good, marginal or replace, and then you can decide what you want to do.

You may also be able to tell your battery is on the way out if you can hear a grinding sound coming from the motor when you start the car.

We stock and sell AA Batteries which are covered by a nationwide warranty. All AA batteries are maintenance free so there is no need to check water levels. Plus they are 96% recyclable so are kinder to the environment as well.

Nothing ruins your day faster than a flat battery on a cold, frosty morning! So come in and see us while the sun still's shining and throw away those jumper leads for good!

Enjoy a Night at the Movies on us!
